Action Taken Report on Feedback

Introduction:

The institution believes that its performance primarily relies on the effective learning objectives and outcomes. Hence constant check and assessment of teaching methods and outcomes plays a vital role in the attainment of objectives. For this purpose feedback is the most essential and effective tool to know whether the college is imparting quality education and knowledge. To impart quality education and to achieve the desired outcomes, IQAC developed a mechanism and framework for the collection of feedback and its analysis. There is a formal procedure for collecting and evaluating feedback. The IQAC circulates the feedback forms to all the stakeholders at the end of academic year and duly collects the filled in feedback forms for analysis. The aspects pointed out by the stakeholders are considered with special care and attention. The teachers discuss and evaluate the suggestions received from different spheres regarding the curriculum. The suggestions received through the feedback are promptly communicated to the Boards of studies and Dean of Academic Affairs of the affiliating Sri Venkateswara University, Tirupati and APSCHE for necessary action.

Sl No	FEEDBACK	ACTION TAKEN
1	Student's feedback on curriculum: About 40% of students expressed that there is a need to improve in the syllabus's depth of course content, coverage of course content, interaction with faculty and references suggested.	1. As the syllabus was being framed by the affiliating university it is decided to send the feedback analysis to the Boards of Studies, SV University, Tirupati to increase the depth of the course content and also requested to refer quality reference books for students.
2	Alumni feedback on institutional ambience and infrastructure: Only a few members of the alumni suggested improving co-curricular activities like seminars, assignments and cultural activities.	1. All the Department in-charges and teachers are directed to increase Co-curricular and extra-curricular activities and incorporate these activities in their curricular plans and follow them meticulously.
3	Lecturer's feedback on curriculum: To improve connectivity in the course content, balance between theory and practicals, freedom for adopting new techniques and freedom to assign study projects within the prescribed curriculum.	1. As the syllabus was being framed by the affiliating university it is decided to send the feedback analysis to the Boards of Studies, SV University, Tirupati.

4	Parents feedback on the institution: To improve the certificate courses, life skills and soft skills among the students.	1. Certificate courses in Tally, PGDCA and communication Skills are conducted and all the department in-charges are directed to conduct certificate courses in their respective courses.

CONCLUSION:

Collective feedback from different groups has proved to be practical benefit for the effective growth of the institution. The feedback has contributed to the striking changes and significant improvement in the teaching-learning process. The feedback enabled the college to change the pattern of the formal programs. Consistent feedback has helped in the self-assessment and to sustain discipline in the institution. The frequent interaction with alumni and other stakeholders have helped to analyze the limitations and drawbacks in developing useful strategies for the further growth. Feedbacks always help in analyzing the expectations of the stakeholders as well as helps for better modifications of the curriculum. The feedbacks received are carefully scrutinized, examined and necessary actions were taken.
