Feedback report from stake holders

2020-21

1. Students feedback on curriculum:

Student's feedback on curriculum was collected in hard copy format every year on a regular basis. A questionnaire was given to students which comprises of fourteen questions on a 2 point scale (Good and needs to improvement). The following report is based on their responses.

More than 70% of the students opined that the curriculum fulfilling the designed objectives of the program, relevance of the practicals to curriculum, learning values in terms of skills, knowledge, analytical abilities, applicability to real life situations, ICT based learning resources, references suggested in the syllabus and by teachers and relevance of additional source material in the library as good. Half of the students stated that the depth of course content, extent of coverage of course, interaction with faculty, internal assessment as very good.

More than half of the students expressed that coverage of fundamentals, extent of coverage of course, internal assessment and timely changes in the course content needs improvement. About 40% of students expressed that there is a need to improve in the syllabus's depth of course content, coverage of course content, interaction with faculty and references suggested.

Hence it is decided to send proposals to the BOS Chairperson and members of the affiliating university to increase the coverage of fundamentals, depth of course content, applicability of syllabus to real life and relevance of the course with practicals. The teachers are suggested to use ICT facilities in the classroom exclusively to make the class more interesting. The exam committee is directed to conduct internals as per the academic calendar and the library committee is recommended to procure authenticated source materials.

2. Alumni Feedback:

Alumni feedback on the institution and academic ambience was collected in hard copy format every year on a regular basis. A questionnaire was given to alumni which comprises of 10 questions on a 5 point scale i.e., excellent, very good, good, average and poor. The following report is based on their responses.

Almost all the alumni asserted that the curricular and teaching methods, co-curricular activities like seminars, assignments, quizzes, extra-curricular activities like games, sports, cultural activities, training and placements and library as excellent. All the alumni stated that learning environment, infrastructure and lab facilities as very good. 35% of the alumni stated that faculty as very good.

Almost all the alumni expressed that quality of support material as good. Only a few members of alumni stated that extra-curricular activities, faculty, fee structure and library as average and poor

Only a very few members of the alumni suggested improving co-curricular activities like seminars, assignments and cultural activities. Hence it is concluded that majority of the alumni are contended with the learning environment, fee structure, faculty and library.

3. Teachers feedback on curriculum:

The college follows the prescribed syllabus of the affiliating university in its curriculum. As the teachers are the pivotal stakeholders, Teacher's feedback on curriculum was collected every year on a regular basis. For the year 2020-21 teachers' feedback was collected in hard copy format. A questionnaire was given to teachers which comprises of fifteen questions on a 5 point scale i.e., excellent, very good, good, average and needs to be improved. The following analysis is based on their responses.

Almost all the teachers expressed that the correlation between the title and content of the paper, course carries sufficient optional papers, exams cover all units, has the freedom to adopt new techniques and the overall opinion on the curriculum as excellent.

Majority of the teachers stated that the syllabus is suitability to the course & need based; the books prescribed for reference materials are relevant, updated and appropriate and have the freedom to organize guest lectures as very good.

Only a few teachers opined that connectivity in the course content, balance between theory and practicals, freedom for adopting new techniques and freedom to assign study projects within the prescribed curriculum as good.

A very few teachers said that syllabus gives freedom to assign study projects within the prescribed curriculum as average. From the responses given by the teachers it is deduced that the overall opinion of the teachers on curriculum is very good.

4. Parents Feedback on Curriculum:

Parents are the distinguished stake holders of the institution. Hence feedback is collected from them on the institution and academic ambience in hard format every year regularly. Parents were given questionnaire consisting of 10 questions on a two point scale Yes/ No.

Almost all the parents are contended with the quality of education, teaching - learning process, ICT and digital based teaching, assessment, discipline of the students, teachers interaction with parents, co -curricular and extra- curricular activities and NSS and NCC, sports and games. Some of the parents suggested that there is a need to improve the certificate courses, life skills and soft skills among the students.
